We do not disclose the data to third parties. We engage several subcontractors in processing personal data. We have outsourced IT management to an external service provider. The personal data is stored on the server managed and protected by said service provider.

How do We protect the data and how long will we retain it?

Access to the system containing personal data is limited to the employees entitled to process such data in the course of their work duties. Each user has a unique username and password to access the system. The data is saved in databases protected by firewalls, passwords and other technical means. The databases and back-up copies are located in locked premises and can only be accessed by predesignated individuals.

We retain personal data for as long as necessary for the intended purpose or as required by law. The personal data collected by the SharpSpring™ automated marketing system is retained for 18 weeks, after which the data is automatically erased unless the data subject is active on our website.

The personal data needed for individual events gathered by the Lyyti Event Management System is retained for 12 months after the event unless a data subject requests the erasure of his or her data. The data in the Lyyti Event Management System is anonymised when 12 months have elapsed from the event, after which such personal data can no longer be retrieved.

We assess the need for the retention of the data regularly with due regard to legal requirements. Additionally, we take other reasonable measures to ensure that the register does not contain any information on data subjects that is inconsistent with the purposes of processing, or outdated or incorrect. We correct or destroy all such data promptly.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (effective 25 May 2018), you have the right to object to or limit the processing of your personal data or file a complaint regarding the processing of your data with the supervisory authority. To the extent that you have yourself submitted information to the customer register that is processed subject to your consent or order, you have the right, as the data subject, to receive this data primarily in machine-readable format and to transfer such data to another controller.

For special personal reasons, you may also object to profiling and other processing measures when processing of your data is based on a customer relationship between you and Lappset. When filing such a request, you need to identify the specific situation you invoke as a basis for your objection. We may only refuse to comply with such an objection on the grounds set out in law.

As a data subject, you have the right, at any time and free of charge, to object to such processing, including profiling to the extent that it is related to direct marketing.
